

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Honorable William Grams has served Fourteen years in the Senate of South Dakota, eight of which he also served as the Co-Chairman of the Appropriations Committee; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Grams has served everyone in South Dakota, in addition to the people of his own district, with one eye on the fiscal affairs of South Dakota and the other on preserving the history of the State and its Capitol; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Grams has earned the highest admiration and respect of every legislator privileged to serve with him and is openly recognized by leaders of both political parties as truly having the best interests of the people of South Dakota at heart; and,

WHEREAS, The people of South Dakota owe an incredible debt to the Senator from the Twenty-first District for his vigorous, selfless service and tireless dedication to our State; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Grams may be leaving the Senate of South Dakota on December 31, 1980, but the people of South Dakota will never forget The Honorable William Grams and his service to us; and,

WHEREAS, Bill Grams is being honored by the people of the Twenty-first Legislative District on Sunday, September 14:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 1980, as

BILL GRAMS DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge each South Dakotan to join me in paying tribute to one of the finest men ever to serve in the Senate of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
